RULES AND REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE 1.—The Library shall be open for the delivery of books every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY, and SATURDAY, from three to eight o'clock, P. M., and on Friday from three to six, P. M., except during the month of July, when the annual examination occurs.

ART. 2.—All persons who shall sign and observe all the existing Rules and Regulations, shall have a right to take books from the Library :

First.—Any inhabitant of the city, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards.

Second.—Any person not an inhabitant of the city, who shall have been a benefactor to the Library to an amount of not less than twenty-five dollars.

Third.—Any inhabitant of the city, between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one years, who shall present to the Librarian a certificate signed by the parent or guardian of such minor, who shall become responsible for said minor's observance of the rules, and for any damage or loss that may accrue to the Library, in consequence of such permission.

ART. 3.—No person shall be allowed more than one volume at any one time, to be changed but once a week. The fine for the retention of any volume beyond the time specified, shall be two cents for each day it is so retained.

ART. 4.—The time allowed for the retention of the books shall be two weeks for each volume; but when any book is in great demand, the time may be limited to one week.

ART. 5.—Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these Regulations, shall be sent for by the Librarian, and should the book not be returned to the Library within two days after demand thus made, it shall be regarded as lost.

ART. 6.—All injuries to books beyond reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Trustees.

ART. 7.—All books are required to be returned to the Library on or before the 15th of July, under penalty of a fine of fifty cents; but seasonable public notice shall be given by the Librarian.

ART. 8.—No person receiving a book from the Library shall lend it to any person not a member of the same household.

ART. 9.—No person owing a fine or forfeiture, shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

ART. 10.—All persons visiting the Library Room will be expected to demean themselves quietly ; and no loud conversation will be allowed in the room.

Any one abusing the privileges of the Library, by improper or offensive conduct, will be denied admission to the room.

ART. 11.—Persons entitled to the privileges of the Library may receive books for consultation in the Library Room, during the times when it may be open ; but such books shall be charged to them on delivery, and the entry erased when the same are returned.

ART. 12.—Books of Reference, and those deemed by the Trustees unsuited for general circulation, shall not be loaned, except by an order signed by a majority of the Library Committee.

ART. 13.—When any book that may be applied for is found not to belong to the Library, the applicant is particularly requested to furnish the Librarian with the title of such book, the name of the author and publisher, together with his own signature.

PREFATORY NOTICE.

The Trustees of the "Lynn Free Public Library" present to their fellow-citizens the first Catalogue of that Institution. It has been carefully prepared, with much labor, under the direction of Jacob Batchelder, Esq., the efficient Librarian, and, it is believed, will be found adequate as an Index to the various authors and books of the Library. An inspection of the Catalogue will show at once the excellence of the Library as the nucleus and basis of a collection adequate to the object in view, namely, the furnishing to the citizens good general reading, and the means of intellectual instruction and entertainment free of expense.

The collection of books, now thrown open to the public, has been slowly accumulating for more than forty years. In October, 1818, the "First Social Library" was established, containing 205 volumes. The proprietors first met at the fourth ward school-house, and Alonzo Lewis was chosen Librarian, with a salary of ten dollars for the year. In 1819, the Directors report the number of books as 206; one volume, Pope's Works, having been added during the year. In 1850, the shareholders of the "Social Library" transferred their books, about 1500 volumes, to the "Natural History Society," incorporated in 1842. The sole condition of this transfer was, that the books should always constitute a Public Library. In 1855, the "Lynn Library Association" was established, to meet "the increasing demand for a Public Library, to the citizens of Lynn, under reasonable restrictions, and by the payment of moderate fees for the use of books." To this Society the books of the "Natural Historical Society" were transferred, then containing about 2000 volumes, with the same stipulation, that "the Library should not be conveyed to any private use."

In 1862, the "Library Association" offered its Library of about 4000 volumes to the City Government, on the condition that it should form the basis of a "Free Public Library." The City Government accepted the proposal, and made an appropriation, in 1862, of $1000, and, in 1863, of $1500, for the establishment of a Free Library. It will thus be seen how gradually the Institution has grown up, and with contributions from various Associations, each merging in some more general benefit and securing a wider usefulness. The present collection, of which the Index is here presented, consists of 6042 volumes — accumulations from the following different sources :

First Social Library, ...	1500 vols.
Natural History Society, ...	500 "
Library Association, ...	2094 "
Young Men's Christian Association, . .	276 "
Individual donations to "Free Library," .	624 "
Purchased by Library Committee, . .	1048 "
Total number of vols., . . .	6042

The generous gift of the "Young Men's Christian Association," by which their excellent collection of religious books was made available to the whole community, deserves special mention. The public spirit manifested by these various Institutions and by the City Government is worthy of all commendation.

It was hoped that when the Library became free, the citizens generally would have responded to the call to donate books to the Institution, or, at least, to send in volumes lying comparatively idle upon their shelves. If each family had presented but one book, the Library would now have several thousand additional volumes, and be better prepared to meet the demands of a general circulation. The few hundred volumes donated have come from a small number of persons. The necessary supply of miscellaneous books for light reading could be furnished in this way, and no individual be in reality the poorer for it. Of popular books there is no fear of having too many copies. Many books are purchased for home reading, and then lie useless, which, if sent to the Library, would materially aid the liberal and wise purposes for which it is established. The appropriation of the City Government, after payment of the current expenses and the printing of the Catalogue, has left but a small sum for the purchase of new books.

If the volumes needed for general reading were thus furnished, the Trustees would be enabled to increase the value of the Library by purchasing standard scientific and literary works, which would meet the rising demand for solid and instructive reading.

The utility of a good Public Library is a fact established beyond all controversy. No city or town can, with credit, be without such an Institution. It will soon be regarded as a necessity, like the Free Schools. And with a generous and fostering care on the part of the public at large, as well as those who have wealth in our community, this Library, of which so auspicious a beginning has been made, may become the pride of our city. There is no reason to doubt that the Library here, as in other Institutions of the kind elsewhere, will be enriched by valuable donations of money and books from some of our wealthy citizens who have at heart the welfare and good name of the city. The Trustees earnestly invite the attention of their fellow-citizens to this object of providing good, useful, and instructive reading, of a moral, scientific, intellectual, and religious character for the whole community.

CITY OF LYNN.

IN THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-TWO.

Be it Ordained by the City Council of the City of Lynn:

SECTION 1st. In the month of July or August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, there shall be elected, by joint ballot of the City Council, nine persons as Trustees of the Lynn Public Library, three of whom shall serve for a period of three years, three for a period of two years, and three for a period of one year, from the first day of September next ensuing. The Trustees so chosen shall, as soon as convenient, meet and determine by lot, or otherwise, who of their number shall serve for the several terms specified in this section. In the month of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and annually thereafter, three Trustees shall be elected in like manner for a term of three years; and whenever a vacancy shall occur in said Board of Trustees by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled by the election of another Trustee, in the manner aforesaid, who shall hold his office for the residue of the term for which such person so deceased, resigned or removed, would have held the same.

SEC. 2d. The Trustees so elected, together with His Honor the Mayor and the President of the Common Council, who shall be ex officio members of said Board, shall have the sole charge, care, superintendence and management of the books and other property conveyed to the City of Lynn, by the Lynn Library Association, for the purpose of establishing in said City a Free Public Library, and of any additions thereto; also, of any buildings, fixtures, and other property, which may be provided by said City for the use of said Library, or of any devise, bequest or donation made for the use or benefit of the same. Any appropriations of money made for the benefit of the Library shall be expended under the direction of the Trustees.

SEC. 3d. Said Trustees shall have power to appoint a Librarian, and to make all needful rules and restrictions for the use and enjoyment of the said Library by the inhabitants of Lynn, subject, however, to such regulations as may from time to time be established by the City Council.

SEC. 4th. Said Board of Trustees shall, annually, in the month of January, and whenever required by the City Council, make a report in writing concerning the condition of the Library and the number of books added during the year, together with an account of all receipts and expenditures, and such items of information as they may deem important.

In Common Council,
August 20, 1862.

Passed to be ordained,

GEORGE H. CHASE, President.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen,
August 20, 1862.

Passed to be ordained,

P. M. NEAL, Mayor.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

LYNN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

ARTICLE 1. — The Library shall be open for the delivery of books every day except Sunday, from two to eight o'clock, P.M., except during the month of July, when the annual examination occurs.

ART. 2. — All persons hereinafter specified, who shall sign and observe all the existing Rules and Regulations, shall have a right to take books from the Library.

First. — Any inhabitant of the city, above the age of fourteen years, who shall present to the Librarian a certificate, duly executed in the following form, guaranteed by the signature of a permanent and responsible resident of the city as reference, or by the parent or guardian, if the applicant be a minor: —

"The undersigned, an inhabitant of Lynn, over fourteen years of age, residing at ————, place of business ————, desirous of obtaining the privileges of the Free Public Library, hereby promises to obey all the rules made and prescribed in such case, and to give immediate notice at the Library of any change of residence.

Reference. ————. Signed. ————.

Lynn, ———— 186

Secondly. — Any person not an inhabitant of the city, who shall have been a benefactor to the Library to an amount of not less than twenty-five dollars.

ART. 3. — No person shall be allowed more than one volume each week at any one time; and no book shall be kept by the person borrowing it for a longer time than that prescribed by the Trustees. The fine for the retention of any volume beyond the specified time shall be two cents for each day it is so retained.

ART. 4. — The time allowed for the retention of the books shall be two weeks for each volume; but when any book is in great demand, the time may be limited to one week.

ART. 5. — Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian, and should the book not be returned to the Library within two days after demand thus made, it shall be regarded as lost.

ART. 6. — All injuries to books beyond reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Trustees, by the person chargeable therewith.

ART. 7. — All books are required to be returned to the Library on or before the 15th of July, under penalty of a fine of fifty cents; but seasonable public notice shall be given by the Librarian.

ART. 8. — No person receiving a book from the Library shall lend it to any person not a member of the same household.

ART. 9. — No person owing a fine or forfeiture shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

ART. 10. — All persons visiting the Library Room will be expected to demean themselves quietly; and no loud conversation will be allowed in the room.

Any one abusing the privileges of the Library, by improper or offensive conduct, will be denied admission to the room.

ART. 11. — Persons entitled to the privileges of the Library may receive books for consultation in the Library Room during the times when it may be open (until nine o'clock, P.M.); but such books shall be charged to them on delivery, and the entry erased when the same are returned, precisely as in the case of books withdrawn from the room.

ART. 12. — Books of Reference, and those deemed by the Trustees unsuited for general circulation, shall not be loaned except by an order signed by a majority of the Library Committee.

ART. 13. — When any book that may be applied for is found not to belong to the Library, the applicant is particularly requested to furnish the Librarian with the title of such book, the name of the author and publisher, together with his own signature.
